

CONTENTS

	Page No
1. Editor's Note
Sunanda Mukherjee	i-iv
2. Whitman's Poetry in Space: The Reach of Affectivity	1-13
Elisa Sabbadin
3. Translating Trauma, Voicing Silence: Paul Celan, the Politics of Language, and the Poetics of Witnessing	14-33
Avijit Basak
4. Mapping Memory, Nostalgia and Temporal Inflections in Select Films of Wong Kar-wai	34-47
Ria Banerjee
5. Suffer, Little Children: Childhood as Seen Through the Eyes of Black Writers	48-65
Kavon Franklin
6. Towards Agency and Communion: Sehnsucht or Life Longings of Chicana Women in Sandra Cisneros' The House on Mango Street	66-76
Jyotismita Sarkar
7. Tracing the Motive Behind Violation and Abuse of Untouchable Women's Bodies in the Post-Partition Narrative of Jatin Bala's 'The Poisoned Lust'	77-90
Anuja Laha
8. The Mind Getting Debilitated: A Detailed Study on Earth	91-98
Debasmita Mahajan

9. Reimagining the identity of 'Bombay' as a city: 99-108
Interpreting Amrita Mahale's Milk Teeth
Ayushi Roy
10. Consumer Culture and the Postmodern Urban Reality: 109-122
A Study of Salman Rushdie's The Ground Beneath Her Feet
Chhutan Dey
11. Empowering Women? How the Postfeminist Rhetoric 123-139
Serves the Interest of the K-Pop Industry
Somya Dimri
12. Confined to the Kitchen and Excluded from the Discourse in Life and 140-152
After: Exploring the Dead in the Kitchen through Select Bengali Short Stories
Mukulika Batabyal
13. Kushan Gan as a Study of Mnemonics, Tradition and 153-167
Performance: A Reportage
Mousumi Sen
14. Contributors. 168-169